Healthy Water
Technologies Australia

The whole house solution for better tasting, better for you energised water.

- Maintenance Free • Delicious fresh taste • Neutralise toxins • Faster more efficient hydration

Energised / structured water is now being widely recognised as the holy grail of water solutions and the Home Edge Kinetic Water Energiser uses advanced technologies and quantum physics to provide you with endless supplies of delicious tasting, energised water.

The Home Edge from Healthy Water Technologies Australia is a revolutionary 'whole home solution', providing your family with the softest, healthiest water to your taps in the kitchen, laundry, bathrooms, fridge, toilets, outside taps and wet bars. It is a maintenance free, toxic neutralisation device which utilises cutting edge water enhancement technology. And it will never require costly filter replacements.

Scientific research has proven that energised water promotes better health and wellbeing. Energised water is known to help eliminate toxins in the body, facilitate more rapid and efficient hydration and neutralise fluoride and chlorine deposits that are inherent in most supplied water systems. It is also great in the garden because it's faster and more efficient hydration will save time and water and it will give a real 'lift' to your family pets as well!

In terms of hygiene and maintenance, The Home Edge Kinetic Water Energiser helps eliminate calcium and aragonite deposits in household pipes thus prolonging the life of household plumbing. It will also aid in the elimination of shower scum build-up.

But best of all, The Home Edge Kinetic Energiser will give you an endless supply of healthy, living, energised water. Tastes better. Better for you.
